

Traditional Scouting - EXPLORER FALL CAMP

“SHAKIN OUT OF HIBERNATION”

NOVEMBER 25-26, 2017

The Explorers will be trailing into the rural woods of southeastern New Brunswick (at Ryan’s camp ground in Kouchibouguac National Park) to discover some really unique experiences that you wouldn’t normally learn in your backyard. Some items that you should expect this time around would be: (but not limited to)

- Knife, Axe, Fires, stoves and Lantern Permit
- Day and Night hiking experience
- Dutch Oven Cooking
- Night-time wide games
- Warming hut
- Patrol Challenges
- Wise Owl Award & Hospitality Award
- Chinese Lantern launch into the darkness

Destination for this camp will be at the Adair’s Wilderness Lodge property and will be “out of doors” in a group tenting area along with 1st KV BPSA Scouting group.
